(The Blessing of Ten Lepers—James Tissot (1836–1902))

Blessed are those who hear the word of God and observe it.

Each of us may consider ourselves blessed in certain ways, and not in others. Perhaps one of us has a talent for music while another has a talent for numbers. Faith, common to us all as a gift, makes us equally blessed in the eyes of the Lord, where distinctions beyond “man and woman made in his image” no longer exist. In faith we hear and observe the word of God and are blessed with the hope and promise of eternal life with him.

October is the Month of the Rosary

Praying the Rosary is a powerful spiritual practice that deepens our relationship with Christ and His Blessed Mother, Mary. Each decade invites us to meditate on the significant events or “mysteries” of Jesus’ life, drawing us closer to Him through Mary’s intercession. The rosary is both a vocal and meditative prayer offering peace and grace as we reflect on God’s love and wisdom. Pope Leo XIII called it “the remedy for our time,” underscoring its importance in seeking peace in our hearts, our families, and the world. Let us embrace this beautiful tradition, entrusting our cares to Mary and fostering a spirit of contemplation, humility, and devotion.
