We are called to persevere in faith until the day Christ returns.

As we approach the end of the liturgical year, our readings turn toward the end of time. The Church in her wisdom reminds us that this earth is not our final home. We are destined to be with God in heaven. The day is coming when Christ will return to judge the world with justice. If we persevere in faith, we can anticipate this coming with joy.

Sunday Readings

1st Reading: Malachi 3:19-20a
 Resp Psalm: Psalm 98:5-6, 7-8,9
 2nd Reading: 2 Thessalonians 3:7-12
 Gospel Reading: Luke 21:5-19

Malachi says the day is coming when all evildoers will be stubble, for that day will set them on fire. Those who fear the Lord, however, will see the sun of justice rise. Paul instructs the Thessalonians to work quietly and eat their own food. In the Gospel, Jesus predicts the fall of the temple and persecution for his disciples, but he assures them that perseverance will secure their lives.
